

Boundary Commission for Scotland First Periodical Review of Scottish Parliament Boundaries

Local Inquiry – Fife Council Area

Provisional Order of Business

Listed below is the Provisional Order of Business for the Local Inquiry.

At the opening of the local inquiry, the Assistant Commissioner will confirm if the organisations or individuals listed below are present and whether they wish to offer oral evidence. Thereafter, the Assistant Commissioner will ask for the names of individuals or organisations that are not listed below who wish to offer oral or written evidence to the inquiry.

In order to give others an opportunity to study and comment on alternative proposals, and to ensure that an accurate record is kept, 3 copies of any written submissions, schemes or maps not previously submitted to the Commission should be provided for the Assistant Commissioner, the verbatim reporters and others attending the inquiry.
